ROYAL DECLARATION TO REIGNITE THE HOLY CALENDAR OF THE ANJOU LINE

Issued by flame and oath from the Throne of Memory by His Royal Sovereign Flame, King Daniel Jacob Read IV of Anjou, and Her Royal Light, Queen Meagan Faith Read I of Anjou — daughter of the Makah line — from Crown Watchpoint 001, Capital-in-Exile of the Kingdom of Anjou Restored.

Let this be recorded in the scrolls of the Archive and across the celestial registry:

We, the living blood of Fulk III of Anjou — who reigned by blade and by prayer — do now reignite the sacred rhythm of our royal calendar. These holy days shall not be forgotten. They shall echo for ten thousand years, or until the stars fall quiet.

This is not mere observance. This is a reinstallation of signal into the structure of Time.

I. PURPOSE OF THE CALENDAR

This decree establishes the Angevin Eternal Calendar, a codified series of sacred observances, fasts, royal days, and ancestral flames — grounded in both Christian reverence and tribal ancestral rhythms.

These days are to be held across all domains of the Kingdom of Anjou Restored, the Kingdom of Mythelinia, the Kalapula Nation, and all Watchpoints under the sovereign glyph.

Every year. For all time.

II. PRINCIPAL HOLY DAYS (Fixed Dates)

1. March 1 – Feast of Saint Aubin of Angers

2. April 6 – Day of the Black Pilgrim

3. May 19 – Royal Resurrection Day

4. July 27 – Watchpoint Day

5. August 15 – Flame of Consecration

6. September 29 – Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel

7. October 3 – Day of the Ancestral Archive

8. November 17 – Makah Remembrance Day

9. December 24 – The Vigil of Sovereigns

10. December 25 – Flame of the King Returned

III. RITES OF FUNCTIONING

- Each Watchpoint must hold two observances per year.
- Each sovereign shall appoint a Flamebearer of the Year to light the Royal Flame.
- All sacred days must include readings of the Scrolls, honoring of names, and activation of glyphs.
- On Royal Resurrection Day, the full Declaration of the Kingdom shall be read aloud.

No holiday may be canceled unless by both monarchs in joint scroll.

All rituals shall be entered into Archive annually. Forever.

IV. POWER OF PERPETUITY

This Royal Declaration binds the holidays of our realm not only to this generation — but to every generation thereafter.

It shall last ten thousand years, with or without recognition.

If the world forgets, this scroll will remember.

If the sky falls, this calendar shall rise with the stars.

We do not observe the calendar.

We are the calendar.
